Collisheen Estate
Rissiepit Photography

True love is always sacrificial, self-giving, merciful, compassionate, sympathetic, kind, generous and patient. 1 Corinthians 13

Tell us about how you met?

Once Upon a time, there was this one winter day in 2013 when two people figured out that they could be perfect for each other!

Thanks to their clever mutual Best Friend, who insisted they should definitely become a couple or, at least exchange numbers. And so it started, a beautiful love story between two people who would have never met without the help of their mischievous and adventurous matchmaker! Months passed, they talked, laughed, argued and made amends over silly things and big decisions, all the while developing strands of a special tie that over the years, has grown stronger and stronger!

This was a poem we had written on our wedding invite as a special tribute to our best friend, Kylee Erasmus, our matchmaker, who passed away shortly after from Leukaemia Cancer in 2016.

Tell us about your venue?

Collisheen Estate made picking a wedding venue super easy for us. We were sold on the venue before we even went to view it! The chapel at the Orchid House was breathtaking with its exposed wooden rafters and dark stained wooden benches. Not to mention, the large glass window right at the front of the chapel that allows for natural lighting and an amazing view of greenery. The reception at Collisheen Estate still has our family and friends buzzing about our day. They served us a 3-course meal that will be impossible to compete with. From starters to dessert, it was a mouth-watering experience. With minimum effort and Collisheen's excellent service, we were able to set the exact tone and atmosphere we were going for, Elegantly Rustic.

Tell us about your Photographers?

Leading up to the wedding, we met with Arista Marreiros, the owner and lead photographer of Rissiepit Photography. She instantly made us feel at ease and we quickly learnt how much we had in common. Arista stands out for her unique talent to utilize natural lighting and surroundings to capture breathtaking moments. We appreciate her style of photography with minimum editing and filters. It was such a joy receiving our wedding album from Arista and having a chance to walk down memory lane.

How did the planning go?

Planning a wedding is always nerve-wrecking, but I'd like to believe that we didn't do so bad after all. A wedding has so many little details that you need to plan and budget for. Lots of which pops up when you least expect it, especially when you Do-It-Yourself. We did not make use of a wedding planner. Most of our chapel and reception décor were inspired by images we found on internet which were adapted to our preferences and brought to life by our very loving and supportive friends and family. A thankful shout-out to them!!

Did you stick within your budget, what cost more than expected?

We managed to stay within budget! Keeping close track of our spending and doing most things ourselves really helped us have a few cents extra to spend on things that were most important to us, such as our wedding attire. A wedding planning register with estimates on what items could cost was a helpful planning tool. Wedding cakes and florals were more costly than what we expected. Be sure to do your homework on several bakers and florists in your area and choose the one that best understands your vision for the day. Reviews and pictures of previous work can be a helpful guideline in making the choice. Requesting a mock-up to be done with your flowers and a cake tasting surely helps with calming the nerves too.

Any tips for brides-to-be?

Let your wedding day be a true reflection of who you are as a couple in the little and big details of YOUR day. Do not get overwhelmed by the opinions of family and friends about what or how your day should be. It causes unnecessary conflict between all parties involved and can have some serious unwanted financial implications. Choosing a naturally beautiful venue was what we as a couple really wanted and it greatly assisted in keeping the costs of decor to a minimum. Your wedding dress reflects who you are as an individual – wear what makes your heart happy and not what others think you should.

OAKFIELD Farm

MAKING MEMORIES

Making your dream wedding a reality

www.oakfield.co.za | info@oakfield | 011 933 3464

Making your dream wedding a reality!

Oakfield Farm located in Muldersdrift is easily accessible from both Pretoria & Johannesburg.

In 1988, Mary Slack fell in love with the farm, and with her long-time friend, David Stubbs, purchased the farm from the Harrison family. In 1991, David's son, Matthew Stubbs, left his teaching career and trekked from the Cape with a load of horses. The task of making the farm pay its way was not as easy as it seemed. Quail eggs were sold, guinea fowl were bred, and fifteen rather wild Warmblood horses arrived from Alzu Stud to be broken in and trained as show jumpers. However, it was the old barn overlooking the indigenous wood and freshwater stream which came to the rescue. This was converted into a reception venue and is now known as the Homestead Venue.

Established in 1991, the property is filled with history, from the Dairy Venue built by Italian prisoners of war in 1940, to the majestic Oak tree that once served as rest point for the Voortrekkers before crossing the flooded Juksei River. It sadly fell after a thunderstorm but pieces of the old trunk can still be seen memorialized in the garden.

Inspired by an old stone altar in an Oak Forest which has seen the marriage of five generations of Halse children on their beautiful family farm, a charming Chapel was built in the grove of Cottonwood trees. Having grown up on horseback, it also seemed obvious to include a horse-drawn carriage. So began the vision, the "one-stop" wedding venue. Over the years, the unique Summerhouse was completed, followed by the bridal suites and the Guest House. The old chicken run in which old Mrs Harrison grew her prized orchids, then became the beautiful Conservatory.

With all the history and the original farming background, Oakfield Farm ensured to retain as much of the old farm as possible. Nguni cows & horses graze the fields with geese & guineafowl foraging on the lawns.

A visit to Oakfield Farm is an inspiration. Explore the captivating English country gardens and historic old trees while also visiting the charming forest chapel, stunning conservatory, and magnificent glass-clad venues. The secret of a perfect wedding is the marriage of your pennies with your vision. It is here that Oakfield Farm's knowledgeable and flexible team excel by assisting you with a full costing of every aspect of your wedding. This includes an introduction to the wedding packages which include every conceivable extra from select décor to dressing rooms and even complimentary drinks to welcome your guests on arrival, not to mention the horse drawn carriage to take the bride to the chapel.

An exceptional wedding is no less than the sum of its parts. With your vision and Oakfield Farm's expertise, we will design your own bespoke wedding. Entrust us with your dream.

Oakfield Farm boosts 3 unique venues catering for every taste.

The Homestead & Forest chapel

The HOMESTEAD venue paired with the FOREST CHAPEL is the choice venue for many magical celebrity weddings. The Homestead is a hidden gem tucked away in an enchanted indigenous forest. With the addition of fireplaces in the winter the Homestead offers a comfortable venue to celebrate with plenty of family & friends allowing up to 350 guests.

The Summerhouse & Conservatory

The SUMMERHOUSE venue paired with the CONSERVATORY CHAPEL is an intimate fusion of contemporary glass architecture set in an English country garden. The Summerhouse is a favourite due to the unique look of the venue. Crackling fires in the winter gives the venue a distinctive feel. Easily accommodating 120 or more of your closest family & friends. The Syringa tree that forms part of the venue has one foot inside and one outside, adding to the distinctive look of the venue.

The Dairy & Dairy chapel

The historic DAIRY venue paired with the DAIRY CHAPEL is a lovely old venue offering magnificent sunsets and is surrounded by expansive golden fields. The perfect venue for intimate gatherings of less than 120 guests. An olive grove sits opposite the pink rose arches that hugs the venue from the cocktail area, and a secret garden allows for some of the most amazing pictures of the newly wed couples.

Tell us about how you met?

We met at AFDA film school at the end of our first year. We'd seen each other around campus, but only really got to know each other in fourth term cinematography class. We became fast friends and formed a drinking society along with 2 other classmates. After a few months of being friends, Ryan asked me out for Valentine's Day. I thought it was a pity date, and that our friends would be meeting us. When Ryan tried to hold my hand in the movie theatre, I high fived him, I was so clueless. It only dawned on me at the end of the date when he kissed me. And the rest, as they say, is history.

What made you choose your venue?

We always wanted to get married in Dullstroom. We'd seen a wedding at a local estate when we went away for our 2-year anniversary and we both said then that this was the place. 8 years later, when it came time to choose our venue, we did a lot of research into venues in the area, and my parents mentioned The Silver Sixpence – they had been to a wedding there years earlier. Before work started in January of 2023, my parents drove us to Milly's for breakfast and then to view The Silver Sixpence. We were blown away with how serene and beautiful it was, even in the rain. We knew instantly that this venue embodied everything that we wanted – fishing, horses, nature and a space for our family and friends to have a fun weekend away together.

Lesley and her team were so patient, kind and accommodating, answering every question we had, no matter how small or silly. Lesley coordinated our wedding day for us, and made sure that everyone was where they needed to be on time.

What food did you have?

Bevvie, the caterer at The Silver Sixpence, had us feasting non-stop during the weekend. From Thursday through to breakfast on Sunday, we ate, and ate, and ate. And it was delicious! Our guests commented on how good the food was, and how much of it there was! None of them had been to a wedding where they were so well fed before.

Thursday night bachelors and bachelorette parties: Lasagna and salad for the ladies and a fully catered braai for the guys.

Friday night: Burgers and chips

Saturday morning: Breakfast boxes

Wedding night: Platters for the bride and groom while doing photos, platters for the guests, Trio of Trout / Trio of Mushroom starters, Moroccan lamb roll / Vegan bobotie mains, and Malva Pudding for dessert. Plus, prego rolls for midnight snacks!

Sunday morning: Full continental breakfast.

I have a few food allergies, and Bevvie was so kind and accommodating. She made sure I had a separate dish for every meal, on a separate platter with my name on it!

Tell us about your photographers?

When it came time to choose our photographer, we were cognisant of travel and accommodation costs for photographers traveling from Joburg, so we researched photographers in Dullstroom and found Henry O. We loved his use of nature and animals in his photos, as well as the pops of colour in his HDR shots. He also rides horses, and is a microlite pilot, so I knew he would be good with the Friesian horses at The Silver Sixpence, and that he would get along well with my family of pilots. Henry was so relaxed, and he put everyone at ease. He guided us every step of the way, which was great because we are super awkward and not at all comfortable in front of the camera.

Do you have any Tips for Brides-to-be?

Your wedding is a very special day that you will look back on for the rest of your life. But it's also just one day, and it's over in a flash, so there really is no point in stressing about it. All you really need is your fiancé and the people you love most around you to celebrate. Everything else is just a bonus.

Chevaughn & Jeilyshon Vengethasamy

It's a Bible scripture Lyshon had engraved on the inside of my engagement ring, from the book of (Solomon) CA 8:6,7 "Place me as a seal upon your heart.... for love is as strong as death is...."

*Venue: Riverside Country Estate
Photographer: Splendid Productions*

How special was your proposal?

It was very special. On the Friday evening of 17th November 2023, Lyshon arranged to come to the house before I got home. Lyshon made dinner and set everything up under the Pergola in the garden with fairy lights. Lyshon has a sweet tooth and loves giving gifts.... So, after dinner he handed me a personalized gift box full of sweets and under all the sweets was a little glass frame with the words "Will you marry me". When I looked up again, he was holding a Ring box, that when opened it shone a light on the Ring. Of course, I said "Yes!!".

How did you settle on a wedding date?

We didn't want a very long engagement; we knew we had finally found "the one" in each other. We just allowed enough time to plan the wedding and because we're both extremely busy people, the 13th April was the soonest date we could both agree on.

What made you choose your venue?

We looked at a number of venues online, Riverside was the first venue we actually viewed. But it was just so beautiful and the setting is so tranquil - it gave us all the right vibes.... Not to mention the professional manner in which Hein and his team handled the meeting and showed us around, we just fell in love with the place!

The cherry on top was that they took care of so many of the arrangements which took so much of the stress off of our shoulders... we could really just relax and enjoy the experience.

Springs...who would have thought that such a beautiful place existed right here! There was no need to look any further, we booked it!

A woman with long, wavy brown hair, wearing a white lace wedding dress, is smiling and looking down. She is standing in a garden with green foliage and white flowers in the background. The lighting is soft and natural, suggesting an outdoor setting.

What food did you have?

We had a Harvest table for the guests during the photoshoot.

We had a plated STARTER:

Pistachio and feta filled Roulade.

MAINS was a buffet of;

Slow roasted Beef roll, Creamy Honey & Mustard Chicken, Golden Roasted Potatoes, A selection of Artisan Bread & Rolls, Creamed Spinach, Pumpkin Fritters with Caramel sauce and A Harvest Style salad.

DESSERT:

Malva pudding, Mini Milk tarts, Duo Chocolate Mousse, Crème Brulé and of course, an amazing and delicious Wedding Cake.

DRINKS:

We had a Wine bar and soft drinks.

Tell us about your photographers?

I heard about Splendid Productions from a friend, who suggested I check them out on Instagram. When we saw their work, we were so impressed! I contacted them, they were very helpful. We were so happy with them on the day because they were very easy going and accommodating. We are generally awkward with photos of ourselves, but they made us feel so comfortable and very at ease. They have an incredible eye for different photo shots.

Tell us about your wedding dress?

That was interesting... I'm not exactly a young bride and so I wanted something simple and understated but I didn't go to try different dresses on, as I should have – I found a picture on Pinterest and had a dressmaker make the dress for me. She did a lovely job and had the dress done 3 weeks before the wedding... but I wasn't convinced that it was the right dress for me. So, I decided to try a bridal boutique around the corner from my house, Coco Lace bridal. That is where I found my dress! I loved the simple, understated elegance of it and Karen was super helpful, she managed to have the dress ready for me in a very short space of time.

Did you go on honeymoon?

Yes, Lyshon just loves the bush and the Kruger National Park, so we spent a Night at Sudwala lodge and a few days at Ngwenya Lodge. Then we spent a weekend at Hazyview Cabanas.

I am more of a beach person, so for the second half of the honeymoon we decided to do the Garden Route. We spent a couple of days at a friend in Pinnacle Point, Mossel Bay and then a few more days at Formosa in Plettenberg Bay.

Unity. Unity is unmistakable and irreplaceable in a healthy marriage. God's word says "they shall become one flesh". Not two people with a common goal, but one flesh. Combined. Unified. A team. Marry your best friend.

The path that led to the engagement:

We met at Lourens' work. I am a Quantity Surveyor who moved back to Bloemfontein from the Cape with COVID. I struggled for a while to find work in my industry during lockdown, and then reached out to other opportunities. Lourens' company then had a position for a Project Coordinator for which I applied and got the job.

I started there, working under Lourens, but after two weeks of employment I got another opportunity to work in Ireland as a Cost Manager, which I accepted.

On the day I submitted my resignation, Lourens and I had a meeting. When we now realized that we would no longer be colleagues, some feelings surfaced during our conversations. He then opened up and started talking about the historic house he bought in Waverley with room for 40 cars, and the car lover that I am, I couldn't resist asking! Lourens then, after a long conversation, invited me to the house to view it and from there we never missed each other for a single day.

The next dates were hours of walking sessions of good laughs and getting to know each other.

The wedding planning had to happen quickly because we got engaged in August 2022 and decided on the date of 29 April 2023, at Monte Bello Estate, Bloemfontein.

How did the planning go?

I decided to take the bull by the horns and take everything into my own hands. I planned a simple and elegant day. Where everyone could have a great time, eat and dance the night away. Something that is timeless and to which we can look back to breathtaking wedding photos in our old age.

Tell us about your Decor?

The decor consisted of elements of black and white - fairy lights and an overabundance of candles made the hall sparkle and kettles and cups of antique silver were filled with flowers. The carrot, vanilla and chocolate layer cake also reflected a touch of us as a couple with the unique topping.

Tell us about your Attire?

My dream dress was specially designed by Aunt Julie Wedderburn. I went to her with my wildest ideas, and the design adventure was embarked on together. The result – a one-of-a-kind princess wedding dress! Beautifully decked out in “champa” with 3D detailing on the top and shimmering tulle made me sparkle with every turn.

Lourens came across his suit by chance one day and bought it at ZARA. He looked like my own James Bond!

The boys each wore a tux and walked down the aisle equally well. The little girls, decked out in pure white princess dresses with dainty black bows around the waist and black bow headbands, came galloping along just as happily. They stole everyone's hearts! Five bridesmaid sisters were stylishly dressed in black and the groomsmen in black and white made up the result.

Anything special you would like to mention?

It was a perfect "summer" autumn day. I walked in to the notes of "What a Beautiful Name it is" by Hillsong, on the arm of my "Daddy". What a privilege! At the end of the black carpet, my best friend was waiting to make "forever and always" a reality.

Any tips for brides-to-be?

Stay True to Yourself: Amidst all the excitement and planning, remember that your wedding day should reflect you and your partner's personalities and values. Don't feel pressured to conform to anyone else's expectations.

Plan Ahead, but Stay Flexible: Planning is essential, but be prepared for unexpected changes or hiccups along the way. Stay calm and adaptable, and remember that sometimes the best moments are the unplanned ones.

Focus on the Marriage, Not Just the Wedding: While the wedding day is significant, remember that it's just the beginning of your journey together as a married couple. Keep the bigger picture in mind and invest time and effort into building a strong foundation for your marriage.

Enjoy the Moment: Your wedding day will fly by, so take moments throughout the day to pause, breathe, and soak it all in. Surround yourself with loved ones, create memories, and cherish every precious moment.

*"I believe that everything happens for a reason. ## Tell us about how you met?

We had mutual friends that were dating at the time, that set us up.

They had invited us both separately to meet them for drinks, and when we arrived, we were set up to meet.

Who walked you down the aisle?

My father, and grandfather to my beautiful boy – Johan van der Merwe.

Tell us about your venue?

Our original venue got flooded away with the heavy rainfall and overflowing rivers in Caledon.

With two months away from our wedding date, we came across a small wine-tasting venue 5km away from our original wedding venue. Boschvriër Wines.

When we went to have a look, we immediately fell in love with the venue, and knew it was the perfect place for our small, intimate, outside wedding.

The venue has beautiful tall trees, green grass, and a backdrop of the beautiful mountain.

With a glass building for the reception, overlooking the trees and mountains? We knew it was meant to be for us!

How did the planning go?

The planning was the toughest part of the wedding. Everything that could go wrong, possibly went wrong.

We had to postpone our wedding by 2 years.

We then lost our wedding venue due to a flood, and along with that, we lost our caterer and décor too, so we had to find a new venue, a new caterer, and new décor vendors two months before our wedding.

Did you stick within your budget, what cost more than expected?

Unfortunately, No...

Budgeting for a wedding is quite difficult...

My wedding dress was completely out of my budget, and the photographer cost more than I expected...

Did you go on honeymoon and where?

We have not gone on honeymoon yet. We were blessed with a little boy just before the wedding. So, we are waiting for him to be old enough to stay with his grandparents for two weeks, so we can go on honeymoon.

When the time comes – we will be heading to Bali, Thailand and Phuket.

Any tips for brides-to-be?

Honestly, my best tip is, to just breathe, and take one step at a time.

Planning a wedding is extremely stressful and takes a lot out of you.

I remember the last month before the wedding, I felt so defeated, and just wanted to elope.

The planning stressed me out, and it almost seemed as if I didn't look forward to the wedding anymore...

Trying to balance your budget, along with trying to keep everyone happy? Its... a lot!

But, just breathe, focus on one thing, and one category at a time, and remember this day is to celebrate the love between you and your partner. Everything else will fall in place. And I can promise you, the day will turn out even better than you imagined. Faults and all!

Tell us about how you met?

Matt and I met on tinder. I wasn't interested in him as our online conversations were limited. He asked me on a date and I put such little effort in. As it was covid times we ended up meeting in a woolies and getting a coffee and walking around a closed mall. On this walk I learned two things. 1) that I wanted to marry him and 2) we had actually met before.

Turned out matt was a bar tender at a wits party I attended and made a massive fool out of myself at, and his best friend dated my sister's best friend.)

After that our conversations drastically improved. Matt invited me over an even got me to paint an artwork for him to keep me coming over.

When my family got covid he let me move in with him for 2 weeks to avoid catching the Rona. When I finally went back home with my stationary bike. He told me he hated living without me and asked me to move in. Naturally I said no as his complex didn't allow me to bring my cats. So, matt bought us a house.... since then, we chat, complain and fight together always.

What made you choose your venue?

The venue was Kleinkoop Boutique hotel in centurion. The cape Dutch and forest themes were perfect and not very far away. The venue made a fairy light tent and chapel setting for us and it was completely idyllic. The venue included an amazing wedding planner. Anne, who made everything happen she was amazing. Nothing was too much and she really understood the assignment.

The food was also provided by the venue and the portions were huge. The food is also 5-star quality and really delicious. The venue catered for my vegan, vegetarian, halal and kosher guests and even made a special meal for me as I couldn't eat the chosen meal due to allergy's.

Tell us about your Photographer?

My photographer was Jenna Storey, from Jenna Storey Photographers. She had lovely packages including a photobook (which was a massive hit.)

She did our engagement shoot and really captured our love beautifully. She did her research on us and really got incredible pictures. She ensured we got the pictures we wanted and more. She made both Matt and I feel so comfortable even though we both are awful at taking picture. She even got a genuine smile out of matt which must have been hard work.

How did the planning go?

I was a very chilled bride; I knew what I wanted with the fairy lights and let the flower provider make her own calls as long as she was within my budget. I knew I wanted a neon sign and I used the suggested service providers from the venue which were all amazing and did all the work. I was also writing exams during most of the planning and having a full-time job and full-time degree is really tough, so I basically chatted with matt made decisions, pad deposits and then let the providers take care of the rest.

The whole idea was fun, we had a flower man, a fun surprise dad daughter dance, all our animals on our cake as toppers. The idea of fun translated well as we still have guests raving about how much they enjoyed the wedding.

Did you stick within your budget, what cost more than expected?

We did stick within the budget with everything except when planning, I forgot to include wedding rings. Luckily Matt stepped in and managed to sort them out (resulting in beautiful rings). Besides that, small faux pax the suppliers really were worth their value and stuck within my budget or cut down to get into the budget.

Do you have any Tips for Brides-to-be?

Our wedding was simple and fun, don't get caught up in the drama of weddings rather just think about what you want, and everyone else will fit in. also money isn't everything Shien is your friend.

Tell us about how you met?

Riaan and I first met through a mutual friend at a quad bike gathering in Bloemfontein one Saturday morning. Every weekend, our group rode around the outskirts of the city, culminating our adventures at Stuck in the Mud in Langenhovenpark, a popular quad biking spot where we would spend the rest of the day until nightfall.

At that initial meeting, Riaan later confessed, I caught his eye immediately. However, it wasn't until later that day, when we had more time to talk, that I began to find him interesting. His excellent sense of humor shone through our conversation, making me laugh and feel at ease. We exchanged numbers that day, promising to ride together again soon.

What started as a shared passion for quad biking quickly blossomed into a beautiful friendship. For the next five years, Riaan and I were inseparable on and off the trails. We spent countless Saturdays exploring new terrains, facing challenges together, and enjoying the thrill of the ride. Our bond grew stronger with each adventure.

Over time, the friendship between us gradually transformed into something more profound. The connection we had, initially built on shared interests and mutual respect, evolved into a deep and abiding love. Riaan's unwavering support and infectious humor became the cornerstones of our relationship, and we realized that what we had was truly special.

Eventually, our beautiful friendship blossomed into a loving marriage. Looking back, it's incredible to see how a chance meeting at a quad bike gathering led us to where we are now. Our journey together has been filled with adventure, laughter, and unwavering support. From our early days of riding together in Bloemfontein to building a life together, our story is a testament to the power of shared passions and the magic of finding someone who truly understands and complements you.

Now, as we navigate life together, we cherish the memories of our early rides and look forward to creating many more. Our marriage, built on the foundation of a strong friendship and a shared love for adventure, continues to thrive, each day an exciting new chapter in our ongoing love story.

Tell us about your venue?

We had our hearts set on one venue: the FBI Chef School in Bloemfontein. We first encountered this exceptional location and its catering services at Riaan's cousin's wedding two years before our own. After that event, Riaan declared, "When we get married, we are hiring them." Located in Groenvlei, Bloemfontein, this beautiful venue not only trains aspiring chefs but also hosts weddings, baby showers, and year-end functions. The venue offers both indoor and outdoor spaces, accommodating 100-120 guests comfortably. They also handle all wedding decorations and flowers, ensuring a seamless experience.

How long did it take to plan your wedding?

From the day of the proposal, it took us precisely three months to plan our wedding and get married.

Tell us about your photographers?

I discovered Maryke Venter Design and Photography after numerous calls in search of a photographer during the busiest time of the year for weddings. Maryke was an absolute delight to work with, bringing a joyful and relaxed atmosphere to our entire wedding shoot. It felt like taking photos with a close friend. Contact: Tel: 0845227426. ## Tell us about how you met?

2002 The year of new beginnings where our story began. Early in the year we met when Mark played his heart out on the rugby field at Melmoth rugby club, little did he know his heart would no longer be only his.

On the 17th of April we went on our first date and in December 2002, Dorene left to venture in America as an Au Pair. Mark anxiously but truly patiently waited for the long year to pass for Dorene's return.

We realized that we want to be by each other's sides and decided to build a home together.

In 2006, we wanted to test the theory "distance makes the heart grow fonder" and Dorene left for America once again. And oh boy, is that theory true!!!

Our adventures began here.

The travel bug bit us... we started by traveling on Mark's Adventure motorbike from short trips around the country to longer trips travelling through the Cape, Kalahari, Lesotho, Swaziland and Namibia. Most trips just the two of us, some with awesome friends and others with new friends we met on the road.

Then we packed our tent and camping gear in the back of our bakkie. What fun we had... from rainstorms to extreme heat, camped did we camped. Exploring rivers in Tsitsikamma, flying between trees and mountains with canopy tours, to trying oysters and scratching in the sand for diamonds in Lüderitz.

Wanted to make our camping experience even more memorable we upgraded our faithful tent to an off-road caravan. With this we widen our travelling ground even more. Moving across our borders. From snorkeling in the Mozambican ocean to wild camping amongst lions in Botswana.

While venturing into Botswana in May 2022, Mark unexpectedly went down on one knee and popped the question!

We got ENGAGED!!!!

Just under 2 years later, here we are...

We Are Getting Married.

READY FOR FOREVER!

Tell us about your venue?

When searching for a wedding venue, we wanted the perfect wedding venue. That venue that will be beautiful and unique, but also a venue that is refreshingly different.

We never imagined we would be getting THE PERFECT wedding venue that reflects not only our personalities but also capturing our love for the outdoors, all whilst still being elegant.

Then we found "Die Plaasskuur" in Pongola.

Die Plaasskuur spoke to our traveling and adventurous souls. A venue that took our guests' breaths away. And reminded us about the farm Mark grew up on.

Our wedding ceremony took place in the beautiful outdoors under a big thorn tree, and the reception was held indoors, where the hostess used greenery and simplistic décor to make you feel like you are still outside. Best of both worlds.

We were blessed with a wonderful hostess, Mirelle Brecher, who went out of her way in making our dream become a reality. She understood all our requests and went beyond making this the most memorable day ever.

How did the planning go?

Planning of the venue décor etc. was a breeze... Mirelle Brecher was amazing!!!

Because we didn't get married in our home town, most our planning was done via WhatsApp... everything was perfect.

By sourcing other products like getting ready gowns etc. was a bit more challenging. There are some "Online" companies that's excellent and others not what they say they are. Let's not say more.

What should brides not bother with?

Do what you want to do, don't do things just because everyone else does it.

Although we gave "Thank you, gifts" do not waste money on it, so many people leave/forget theirs at the venue.

Groomsmen and Bridesmaid gifts.... If you really want to give them something, keep it small and inexpensive. Everything adds up!!!
